WAR FEELING RISING HIGH, SAYS CARTER

Former Governor, Home From
Two Years in East, Tells of Influence Conflict Has Produced; Hawaii is to Have
"Edith Cavell Nurse" on Battle Front

Former German friends will be welcomed as always before by former Governor George R. Carter, he declared this morning aboard the Matsonia on which he returned from a two-year stay in Boston—"provided they are no longer pro-Prussian, for I want them to understand that we are all at war with the Hun; we don't like the way they fight; we think they have run amuck, and we believe there is not room in the world for a nation that argues 'might is nobler than right,' "he added.

"However," he continued, "even if at war, we still want to act decently, but don't want our courtesy misunderstood. Sincerely I hope that every one has had the law explained to them and that they know what giving aid and comfort to our enemy means."

This was said after he had explained that feeling in the states runs very high and that drastic action was often taken against any one who made pro-German remarks. "It is termed 'giving comfort to the enemy,' " he further explained.

The former governor is frankly glad to be back in Hawaii and extends this greeting to old friends and acquaintances: "Just say to my friends that a comfortable chair in a cool corner at the 'Comeback Club' is what I am looking for."

"Yes, Boston is intellectual and interesting, but one can never become a Bostonian—you can only be born one, and old friends, after all, are essential for a really happy life. My corner, where I can see my friends, is what I expect to enjoy most."

"Hawaii, following Massachusetts' lead, has arranged for an 'Edith Cavell nurse' to be sent to the front. I collected the necessary money for the first year from 'kamaeinas' abroad, and like Massachusetts, Hawaii only asks that the nurse be stationed where, like her namesake, she can care for the wounded Germans as well as those of our own allies."

When the war started former Governor Carter volunteered his services to the war department in the quartermaster corps, thinking he was most suited for that work. He was assured at the time that his services were not then needed, as there was an abundance of younger men anxious to serve.

Without doubt residence in the states has agreed with the ex-governor for he has all the color and energy of a youth.

"Exercise," he explains it tersely.

MEN SOON TO LEAVE FOR TRAINING CAMP GIVEN SEND-OFF BY AD CLUB

Members of the Ad Club gathered at the Alexander Young Hotel at noon today to bid goodspeed to the local men who will leave soon to do their bit for Uncle Sam, by training to become officers in the new American army. These "young men" were given a send-off by the members of the club.

Governor Lucius Pinkham was called upon to say a word regarding the boys who were going to represent Hawaii. "Hawaii has not been behind in her duty to the flag," said the governor. "Our boys have trained to the limit to be ready as our representatives. I know that they will train mentally as well as physically, and that there is no limit to the patriotism of the Territory of Hawaii."

A. L. C. Atkinson, M. G. Maury, Edward D. Jackson, W. J. Hampton, and Philip Coniston were introduced by President Farrington. Alan Lowrey was unable to be present.

Atkinson said that the nation best prepared to give her last ounce of strength will win out. "It is the biggest game I have ever played, and it is the biggest game my country has ever played," said Atkinson. "There is lots to be done, and we want to know that the people behind will back up the men at the front. Back up the military, the Red Cross, food commission and your governor."

W. J. Hampton said that he had been handling gas in Honolulu and expected to have much to do with this in France.

James Wakefield, chairman of the Y. M. C. A. army and navy committee, told how Honolulu started the East by raising $100,000 for an army and navy Y. M. C. A.

"The Ad Club committee owes much to Lorrin Thurston and Archie Young, who did a great work," said Wakefield. "They were active in smoothing over difficulties and I believe

LATE NEWS AT A GLANCE WILL TRAIN 100 OFFICERS HERE

Orders From Washington in Addition to Authorizing Camp Establishment Revokes Transfer of Ten Candidates to Mainland Camp

A cablegram received this afternoon authorizes the Hawaiian Department, U. S. A., to establish a training camp in Honolulu for reserve officers, similar to training camps already established on the mainland.

The proposed camp is to accommodate not more than 100 candidates and will be governed under rules prescribed by Brig.-Gen. C. G. Treat, commanding the Hawaiian department. The camp will be devoted only to candidates who are residents of the islands and who are American citizens.

Today's cablegram revokes the letter of June 8 which directed that 10 men from Honolulu be sent to the Western department training camp. It is probable that the camp will be started by August 15 or 27.

1918 CARNIVAL INDEBTED BY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
That a Carnival should be held in 1918 but that decision as to its length and character should be left to a great extent in the hands of the directors of the Carnival company seemed the sentiment of the majority of the members of the Chamber of Commerce at their meeting this afternoon. Geo. W. Smith thought that nothing of a frivolous nature should be undertaken but Ed. Towse, C. C. von Hamm, D. L. Winkler and John Effinger believed the people needed something cheerful instead of sad. All favored patriotic exercises. Winkler said he had just returned from the East where the people are taking the war more seriously than here but are not stopping sports and similar exercises and ceremonies.

GERMANS DIVIDE ARMY; BEST UNITS FOR DESPERATE WORK
ON THE FRENCH FRONT, July 18.—The Germans have divided their army into superior and inferior grades. The superior grades are made up of "shock units," the object being to use them only in the most difficult work. They are rushed to the scene of action in automobiles. Their specialty is in making breaches in opposing lines and destroying fortifications by means of special cannon, and organizing and consolidating captured positions.

W. A. ENGLE FILES ANSWER IN MANDAMUS CASE
Walter A. Engle, chief clerk in the land office, filed in circuit court late this afternoon his answer to the suit for mandamus brought by Mrs. Julia Leong, in which she seeks to have her name reinstated among those who drew lots at the Kapaa, Kauai, homestead tract. Engle holds that under the law the land commissioner cannot legally let both a man and his wife draw lots in the same homestead tract.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 18.—Immediate passage of the aviation bill in the senate was blocked today by a small group of obstructors. It must go over until next week.

It is alleged they have not complied with the order.

CHARGE DISEASE TO GERMAN AGENTS
This plot is said by United States Attorney Robertson to have been carried out by means of disease inoculation through coast-plaster. STEAMERS SEIZED HERE INVOLVED IN TEUTON PLOT

Among Men Indicted is Captain
Deinat, Formerly in Charge of Ahlers and Holsatia

Mainland papers arriving today carry in detail the story of the big German conspiracy plot revealed on July 7 at San Francisco when the federal grand jury returned indictments for 105 men, many of them well-known in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Long Beach and San Diego.

Of interest to Honolulu is mention of the steamer Maverick and the schooner Annie Larsen, both of which have been mentioned here before in despatches from the mainland.

Among the defendants named in the case, according to San Francisco papers, are Capt. Edmond Deinat, in charge of the German steamers Ahlers and Holsatia, seized at Honolulu by the government, and Albert H. Wehde, art dealer, who was arrested in Honolulu by the federal marshal.

"It is charged," says the San Francisco Chronicle, "that the whole plot was hatched in San Francisco, submitted to the German foreign office in Berlin and carried out by German diplomatic officials in the United States, Honolulu, China, Batavia and Manila."

As stated in press despatches received by the Star-Bulletin at the time, the San Francisco papers carry word that "former German consuls in Honolulu, Manila, Batavia, Shanghai and Chicago" are among the list of defendants. However, as in the case of the despatches no names of any former consuls here are mentioned.

Liquor Places Get Orders To Close July 31st

Saloons, Wholesale Houses,
Hotel and Restaurant Bars
Dark Until 9 P. M.

Saloons, wholesale liquor houses and all hotel and restaurant bars will be closed throughout registration day, July 31, on this island until 9 o'clock in the evening.

Such was the decision reached by the Oahu Liquor License Commission at a special meeting held today at noon. The meeting was called and this decision reached in response to a letter written by Will Wayne, chairman of the central registration board, asking action by the commissioners to request or require the closing of the liquor houses on that date.

Chairman Wayne in his letter asks that this action be taken on all the islands of the group.

A portion of Wayne's letter to the commissioners follows:

"Through you the central board of registration begs to request that the Oahu Liquor License Commission use every effort in their power to induce the saloons to close throughout the islands and to remain closed until 9 p. m. during registration day, July 31."

Later, by telephone the request was made to include wholesale houses and hotel and restaurant bars.

During the special meeting, C. A. Peacock, proprietor of the Criterion saloon, submitted a list signed by practically every saloon man in Honolulu volunteering to close their places of business until such time as desired on registration day. About the only signatures missing to the voluntary agreement of the saloon men were those of men conducting business in the country, where the closing rule will be enforced the same as in Honolulu.

AMSTERDAM, Netherlands, July 18.—Apparently the belief is growing that the appointment of Michaelis to succeed Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg was but a stopgap and that the German government is preparing possibly for a dictatorship by Gen. Ludendorff.

News reached here today of a great explosion in a factory at Stuttgart.

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 18.—In intense fighting along practically the whole of the French front on the west took place yesterday and on the Verdun front the French scored a notable advance after a mighty effort.

Here, the forces of General Petain smashed into the lines of the Germans along a front of half a mile, carrying everything before them to a depth of three-quarters of a mile, but only after overcoming a most stubborn defense. The slaughter was terrific. The Germans lost a number of guns and all their trench defenses as well as many prisoners, while the French casualties were heavy. This fighting centered around Hill 304.
